Certificate of Violations: At least once every 12 months, each motor carrier shall require, and each driver employed shall prepare and furnish a list of all violations of motor vehicle traffic laws and ordinances (other than parking violations) of which the driver has been convicted or has forfeited bond or collateral during the preceding 12 months as required by FMCSR 391.27. Information already provided by FMCSR 383.31 need not repeat that information here.

Annual Record Review: At least once every 12 months, each motor carrier shall review the driving record of each employed driver to determine whether that driver meets the minimum requirements for safe driving or is disqualified to drive a motor vehicle pursuant to FMCSR 391.15. The motor carrier must consider any evidence that the driver has violated applicable provisions of FMCSR and HMR. The motor carrier must also consider the driver's accident record and any evidence that the driver has violated laws governing the operation of motor vehicles, and must give great weight to violations such as speeding, reckless driving, and operating while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, that indicate that the driver has exhibited a disregard for the safety of the public.

Certification: I certify that the following is a true and complete list of traffic violations required to be listed (other than those provided under FMCSR 383 for which I have been convicted or forfeited bond or collateral during the last 12 months. If no violations are listed below, I certify that I have not been convicted or forfeited bond or collateral on account of any violation (other than those provided under FMCSR 383) required to be listed during the past 12 months.
